You agree that you are solely responsible for your interactions with any other user in connection with the Service and Bored Teachers will have no liability or responsibility with respect thereto. Bored Teachers reserves the right, but has no obligation, to become involved in any way with disputes between you and any other user of the Service. Further, this Arbitration Agreement does not preclude you from bringing issues to the attention of federal, state, or local agencies, and such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief against us on your behalf. You agree that, by entering into this Terms of Service, you and Bored Teachers are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. Your rights will be determined by a neutral arbitrator, not a judge or jury. The Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this Arbitration Agreement. The Notice to Bored Teachers should be sent to U. The Notice must i describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute and ii set forth the specific relief sought. If Bored Teachers and you do not resolve the claim within sixty 60 calendar days after the Notice is received, you or Bored Teachers may commence an arbitration proceeding. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by Bored Teachers or you shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator until after the arbitrator determines the amount, if any, to which you or Bored Teachers is entitled. If there is any inconsistency between any term of the AAA Rules and any term of this Arbitration Agreement, the applicable terms of this Arbitration Agreement will control unless the arbitrator determines that the application of the inconsistent Arbitration Agreement terms would not result in a fundamentally fair arbitration. The arbitrator must also follow the provisions of these Terms of Service as a court would. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, including, but not limited to, issues relating to the scope, enforceability, and arbitrability of this Arbitration Agreement. Although arbitration proceedings are usually simpler and more streamlined than trials and other judicial proceedings, the arbitrator can award the same damages and relief on an individual basis that a court can award to an individual under the Terms of Service and applicable law. Decisions by the arbitrator are enforceable in court and may be overturned by a court only for very limited reasons. Unless Bored Teachers and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in a reasonably convenient location for both parties with due consideration of their ability to travel and other pertinent circumstances. If the parties are unable to agree on a location, the determination shall be made by AAA. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. In addition, if you demonstrate to the arbitrator that the costs of arbitration will be prohibitive as compared to the costs of litigation, Bored Teachers will pay as much of the Arbitration Fees as the arbitrator deems necessary to prevent the arbitration from being cost-prohibitive. All aspects of the arbitration proceeding, and any ruling, decision, or award by the arbitrator, will be strictly confidential for the benefit of all parties. If a court or the arbitrator decides that any term or provision of this Arbitration Agreement other than the above is invalid or unenforceable, the parties agree to replace such term or provision with a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision, and this Arbitration Agreement shall be enforceable as so modified. If a court or the arbitrator decides that any of the provisions of the section above is invalid or unenforceable, then the entirety of this Arbitration Agreement shall be null and void. The remainder of the Terms of Service will continue to apply. Notwithstanding any provision in this Terms of Service to the contrary, Bored Teachers agrees that if it makes any future change to this Arbitration Agreement other than a change to the Notice Address while you are a user of the Services, you may reject any such change by sending Bored Teachers written notice within thirty 30 calendar days of the change to the Notice Address provided above. By rejecting any future change, you are agreeing that you will arbitrate any dispute between us in accordance with the language of this Arbitration Agreement. Except for instances in which you have entered into a separate subscription agreement with Bored Teachers, these Terms of Service constitute the entire agreement between you and Bored Teachers and govern your use of the Service, superseding any prior agreements between you and Bored Teachers with respect to the Service. You also may be subject to additional terms and conditions that may apply when you use affiliate or third-party services, third-party content, or third-party software. These Terms of Service will be governed by the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of law provisions. With respect to any disputes or claims not subject to arbitration, as set forth above, you and Bored Teachers agree to submit to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located within Indian River County, Florida. The failure of Bored Teachers to exercise or enforce any right or provision of these Terms of Service will not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. You agree that regardless of any statute or law to the contrary, any claim or cause of action arising out of or related to use of the Service or these Terms of Service must be filed within one 1 year after such claim or cause of action arose or be forever barred.
